WASHINGTON
GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE
1901

This weekly Catalogue of Title Entries is published in conformity with the provisions of the act of Congress of March 3, 1891 (51st Congress, 2d session, chap. 565, sec. 4, Stat. L., v. 26, p. 1108). It contains a list of all copyright entries perfected by the deposit of the copies required by law, and gives in each case the title entry, the name and residence of the copyright claimant, the date and number of the copyright entry, and the date when the copies were deposited to complete the entry of copyright. The titles are arranged in the following classes:

A Books:
  (1) Books proper.
  (2) Miscellaneous, Leaflets, etc.
  (3) Newspaper and Magazine articles.
B Periodicals.
C Musical Compositions.
D Dramatic Compositions.
E Maps and Charts.
F Engravings, Cuts, and Prints.
G Chromos and Lithographs.
H Photographs.
I Fine Arts (a list of the photographs deposited with applications for copyright of paintings, drawings, statuary, and models or designs intended to be perfected as works of the fine arts).

The Index of proprietors accompanying each weekly issue is an index of all the entries contained in that week's issue of the catalogue, under an alphabet of the names of the copyright claimants. The Index at the end of the volume is an index of all the entries contained in that volume.

The titles of the first division of Books (Books proper) are prepared in the Catalogue Department of the Library of Congress, and are complete bibliographical titles of all books received at the Library of Congress under the operation of the copyright law.

This catalogue of copyright entries is distributed by the Treasury Department, and may be subscribed for at the rate of $5 per year (for 4 volumes of about 1,000 pages each) through the nearest collector of customs. The Librarian of Congress can not take subscriptions, but a sample copy of the catalogue may be obtained upon request preferred to the Librarian of Congress.

COPYRIGHT LAW

An edition (revised to July, 1900) of the Copyright Statutes has been published, with index, in a pamphlet of 30 pages, a copy of which will be sent to any person requesting it. A resident in the United States, Canada, or Mexico is not required to send remittance or stamps for paying postage.

Librarian of Congress: HERBERT PUTNAM

Register of Copyrights: THORVALD SOLBERG

[EXPLANATION.—The titles are arranged alphabetically under the headings as shown in the table of contents, and are followed by an index of copyright proprietors.]

1901

This weekly Catalogue of Title Entries is published in conformity with the provisions of the act of Congress of March 3, 1891 (51st Congress, 2d session, chap. 565, sec. 4, Stat. L., v. 26, p. 1108). It contains a list of all copyright entries perfected by the deposit of the copies required by law, and gives in each case the title entry, the name and residence of the copyright claimant, the date and number of the copyright entry, and the date when the copies were deposited to complete the entry of copyright. The titles are arranged in the following classes:

A Books:
  (1) Books proper.
  (2) Miscellaneous, Leaflets, etc.
  (3) Newspaper and Magazine articles.
B Periodicals.
C Musical Compositions.
D Dramatic Compositions.
E Maps and Charts.
F Engravings, Cuts, and Prints.
G Chromos and Lithographs.
H Photographs.
I Fine Arts (a list of the photographs deposited with applications for copyright of paintings, drawings, statuary, and models or designs intended to be perfected as works of the fine arts).

The Index of proprietors accompanying each weekly issue is an index of all the entries contained in that week's issue of the catalogue, under an alphabet of the names of the copyright claimants. The Index at the end of the volume is an index of all the entries contained in that volume.

The titles of the first division of Books (Books proper) are prepared in the Catalogue Department of the Library of Congress, and are complete bibliographical titles of all books received at the Library of Congress under the operation of the copyright law.

This catalogue of copyright entries is distributed by the Treasury Department, and may be subscribed for at the rate of $5 per year (for 4 volumes of about 1,000 pages each) through the nearest collector of customs. The Librarian of Congress can not take subscriptions, but a sample copy of the catalogue may be obtained upon request preferred to the Librarian of Congress.

COPYRIGHT LAW

An edition (revised to July, 1900) of the Copyright Statutes has been published, with index, in a pamphlet of 30 pages, a copy of which will be sent to any person requesting it. A resident in the United States, Canada, or Mexico is not required to send remittance or stamps for paying postage.

Librarian of Congress: HERBERT PUTNAM

Register of Copyrights: THORVALD SOLBERG

[EXPLANATION.—The titles are arranged alphabetically under the headings, as shown in the table of contents, and are followed by an index of copyright proprietors.]

WASHINGTON
1901

This weekly Catalogue of Title Entries is published in conformity with the provisions of the act of Congress of March 3, 1891 (51st Congress, 2d session, chap. 565, sec. 4, Stat. L., v. 26, p. 1108). It contains a list of all copyright entries perfected by the deposit of the copies required by law, and gives in each case the title entry, the name and residence of the copyright claimant, the date and number of the copyright entry, and the date when the copies were deposited to complete the entry of copyright. The titles are arranged in the following classes:

A Books:
  (1) Books proper.
  (2) Miscellaneous, leaflets, etc.
  (3) Newspaper and magazine articles.
B Periodicals.
C Musical compositions.
D Dramatic compositions.
E Maps and charts.
F Engravings, cuts, and prints.
G Chromos and lithographs.
H Photographs.
I Fine arts (a list of the photographs deposited with applications for copyright of paintings, drawings, statuary, and models or designs intended to be perfected as works of the fine arts).

The Index of proprietors accompanying each weekly issue is an index of all the entries contained in that week's issue of the catalogue, under an alphabet of the names of the copyright claimants. The Index at the end of the volume is an index of all the entries contained in that volume.

The titles of the first division of Books (Books proper) are prepared in the Catalogue Department of the Library of Congress, and are complete bibliographical titles of all books received at the Library of Congress under the operation of the copyright law.

This catalogue of copyright entries is distributed by the Treasury Department, and may be subscribed for at the rate of $5 per year (for 4 volumes of about 1,000 pages each) through the nearest collector of customs. The Librarian of Congress can not take subscriptions, but a sample copy of the catalogue may be obtained upon request preferred to the Librarian of Congress.

COPYRIGHT LAW

An edition (revised to July, 1900) of the Copyright Statutes has been published, with index, in a pamphlet of 30 pages, a copy of which will be sent to any person requesting it. A resident in the United States, Canada, or Mexico is not required to send remittance or stamps for paying postage.

Librarian of Congress: HERBERT PUTNAM

Register of Copyrights: THORVALD SOLBERG

[EXPLANATION.—The titles are arranged alphabetically under the headings, as shown in the table of contents, and are followed by an index of copyright proprietors.]

WASHINGTON
1901

This weekly Catalogue of Title Entries is published in conformity with the provisions of the act of Congress of March 3, 1891 (51st Congress, 2d session, chap. 565, sec. 4, Stat. L., v. 26, p. 1108). It contains a list of all copyright entries perfected by the deposit of the copies required by law, and gives in each case the title entry, the name and residence of the copyright claimant, the date and number of the copyright entry, and the date when the copies were deposited to complete the entry of copyright. The titles are arranged in the following classes:

A Books:
  (1) Books proper.
  (2) Miscellaneous, leaflets, etc.
  (3) Newspaper and magazine articles.
B Periodicals.
C Musical compositions.
D Dramatic compositions.
E Maps and charts.
F Engravings, cuts, and prints.
G Chromos and lithographs.
H Photographs.
I Fine arts (a list of the photographs deposited with applications for copyright of paintings, drawings, statuary, and models or designs intended to be perfected as works of the fine arts).

The Index of proprietors accompanying each weekly issue is an index of all the entries contained in that week's issue of the catalogue, under an alphabet of the names of the copyright claimants. The Index at the end of the volume is an index of all the entries contained in that volume.

The titles of the first division of Books (Books proper) are prepared in the Catalogue Department of the Library of Congress, and are complete bibliographical titles of all books received at the Library of Congress under the operation of the copyright law.

This catalogue of copyright entries is distributed by the Treasury Department, and may be subscribed for at the rate of $5 per year (for 4 volumes of about 1,000 pages each) through the nearest collector of customs. The Librarian of Congress can not take subscriptions, but a sample copy of the catalogue may be obtained upon request preferred to the Librarian of Congress.
